

University of North Georgia

Nighthawks Open Institutional Repository

Cadet Military Leadership Program Updates

Division of Leadership & Global Engagement

4-1-2017

2017 April 1

Keith P. Antonia

University of North Georgia, keith.antonio@ung.edu

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.northgeorgia.edu/mil-leadership>

Recommended Citation

Antonia, Keith P., "2017 April 1" (2017). Cadet Military Leadership Program Updates. 10.
<https://digitalcommons.northgeorgia.edu/mil-leadership/10>

This Update is brought to you for free and open access by the Division of Leadership & Global Engagement at Nighthawks Open Institutional Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Cadet Military Leadership Program Updates by an authorized administrator of Nighthawks Open Institutional Repository.

UNG | UNIVERSITY of
NORTH GEORGIA™
THE MILITARY COLLEGE OF GEORGIA™ INSTITUTE FOR LEADERSHIP AND STRATEGIC STUDIES

Update 1 August 2017

These updates and the Institute for Leadership and Strategic Studies (ILSS) annual report can be found here:
<http://ung.edu/institute-leadership-strategic-studies/updates-reports.php>

The large UNG sign near the main entrance to UNG is in the final stages of completion. Thanks to an others, the old sign that was Georgia” tag line was replaced by entrance to UNG is in the final stages involved Cadet alumnus, among missing “The Military College of the new sign pictured here!

1988 graduates Paul Calvert and James (Jamie) Jarrard have been selected for promotion to major general and will serve as Commanding General of the 1st Cavalry Division, and Commanding General of the Special Operations Joint Task Force-Operation Inherent Resolve, respectively.

Stellenbosch University (South Africa) Rector with representatives from the South African Military Academy (SAMA) signed a Cadet exchange agreement with UNG on 14 Jun. Cadet Herbert is now at SAMA and SAMA will send a Cadet to UNG in the spring.

The Department of Military Science sent 111 Cadets to the Cadet Leader Course (Summer Camp) at Ft. Knox this summer. The last training regiment graduates on 16 August. We sent the UNG Counsel, Jenna Colvin, a big Corps of Cadets supporter, to visit CLC to observe the leadership development training Cadets receive. While there, she did a tandem HALO parachute jump with the Golden Knights.

In addition to CLC, we have lots of Cadets in training this summer all over the world. One Cadet is with the National Security Agencies Cyber 2017 Summer program internship at Ft Meade. Also, 8 to airborne school; 10 to air assault school; 1 to master fitness trainer; 17 to Cadet Troop Leader Training at 8 Army installations including in Korea and Germany; 4 to the Nurse Summer Training program; 2 to the International Military Academic Forum in the Czech Republic; 1 to an intel/cyber conference in New Zealand; and 13 to 8 countries under the Cultural Understanding and Language Program.

LTC (ret) Tony Fritchle, our military representative in the UNG Center for Global Engagement, along with SGM (ret) Terry Baumann visited the Brazilian Military Academy in June to study and coordinate a possible Cadet exchange program.

The ILSS, the College of Arts and letters and the Center for Cyber Operations Education will host a symposium on 8-9 November: “Civil-Military Cooperation and International Collaboration in Cyber Operations”. Details at go.ung.edu/symposium If you’re interested in the subject and would like to participate, please contact Keith Antonia at keith.antonio@ung.edu

New Cadet basic training, or Freshman Recruit Orientation Group (FROG) week begins on 13 August and ends with graduation on 19 August. We anticipate approximately 245 new Cadets to show.

Note that the construction activity on the drill field is replacing the old dilapidated culvert.

Georgia Gold, American Treasure development initiative is on-going for the sole benefit of the Corps of Cadets. With a goal of $93,145,000, the vision of the initiative is to “Secure and strengthen the Corps of Cadets at the University of North Georgia”. All contributions benefitting Cadets will count toward our goal. For more information, contact Phil Collins at phil.collins@ung.edu. We encourage alumni, friends and family of the Corps to participate in this vital fundraising effort.

If you’re interested in hearing more about the Institute for Leadership and Strategic Studies, and you are visiting Dahlonega, we’d like to schedule a one-hour personal briefing for you. Please contact Keith Antonia at keith.antonio@ung.edu