Update 1 August 2019

Corps of Cadets updates and the Institute for Leadership and Strategic Studies (ILSS) annual report can be found here: <http://ung.edu/institute-leadership-strategic-studies/updates-reports.php>

General Townsend, UNG '82, relinquished command of the Army Training and Doctrine Command on 21 June 2019 at Ft. Eustis, VA, and assumed command of U.S. Africa Command on 26 July 2019 in Stuttgart, Germany.

One hundred twenty-two cadets attended the Army ROTC Advanced Camp at Ft. Knox, KY, a 31-day training event designed to assess a cadet's leadership ability and potential to serve as a commissioned officer. In addition, cadets participated in military training: 9 air assault school, 8 airborne school, 1 mountain warfare, 1 jungle operations, 22 Cadet Troop Leader Training in various Army units, and 2 Nurse Summer Training Program (interning in Army hospitals).

In June and July, cadets travelled abroad for an exchange with the National University of Public Service in Hungary; for internships in Germany, Japan, Estonia, and Latvia; and for Army ROTC service learning programs in Estonia, Peru, and Senegal.

Twenty-one cadets are expected to commission on 2 August, including 9 regular Army, 5 Army National Guard, 1 Army Reserve, and 6 not yet determined. With 26 commissioned in December, 58 commissioned in May, and 21 in Aug, the total for the year is 105. UNG has commissioned over 320 cadets in the past 3 years.

 Great speakers, including MG (Ret) Bob Scales

The Institute for Leadership & Strategic Studies continues to expand global learning experiences for our cadets. We now have exchange agreements with 11 foreign military academies. This fall, we will have 5 cadets from the Republic of China (Taiwan) Military Academy, two from the Argentine Military Academy, and 2 from the Hungarian National University of Public Service in the Corps of Cadets. One cadet from ROCMA will spend all four years in the Corps and commission into the Taiwanese Army.

Help us recruit! If you know any high school sophomore, junior, or senior (or the parent of) who is considering a military program in college, please tell them to come to National Leadership Challenge Weekend on 1-3 November 2019 to learn about the Corps of Cadets at UNG! Georgia Gold, American Treasure development initiative is a fundraiser for the sole benefit of the Corps of Cadets. With a goal of $93,145,000, the vision is to "Secure and strengthen the Corps of Cadets at the University of North Georgia". All contributions benefitting Cadets will count toward our goal. Contact Phil Collins at phil.collins@ung.edu. We encourage alumni, friends and family of the Corps to participate in this vital fundraising effort. <https://unggive.org/corps-of-cadets/> If you're interested in hearing more about the Institute for Leadership and Strategic Studies, and you are visiting Dahlonega we'd like to schedule a one-hour personal briefing for you.
