J. E. Murphry

A native of Georgia, Mr. Murphry was born near Greensboro, Washington County, 1849. He was reared on a farm, attended the district schools, and learned the principles of the law, but as much as he was a man of vast cultural knowledge, and he was skilled in a great many useful hobbies.

In 1880, he moved to Atlanta, where he became a leading lawyer and judge, and served as a member of the state legislature. He was a tireless worker in the cause of freedom and justice, and was a member of the bar association of Georgia. He was a faithful friend to the cause of righteousness, and his name is revered by all who knew him.

In 1904, Mr. Murphry was appointed a judge of the superior court of the state of Georgia, and he served with great distinction until his death in 1920.

Mr. Murphry was a man of great character, and his memory will be cherished by all who knew him. He was a true friend, a faithful counselor, and a loyal patriot. His name will live forever in the hearts of those who loved him.
