Update 1 December 2019

Corps of Cadets updates and the Institute for Leadership and Strategic Studies (ILSS) annual report can be found here: <http://ung.edu/institute-leadership-strategic-studies/updates-reports.php>

MG Paul Calvert, UNG '88, finished commanding the 1st Cavalry Division at Ft. Hood on 3 Oct and assumed duties as the Assistant Army G3/5/7 in Washington, DC.

MG James Jarrard, UNG '88, assumed command of the 25th Infantry Division at Schofield Barracks, Hawaii on 5 November—The Tropic Lightning division.

For the 2d time in 3 years, UNG received the MacArthur Award as the top Army ROTC program among the 6 senior military college programs. The award is based on the % of commissions against Army-assigned mission, average order of merit score, % of cadets in the top 10 percent of their cohort, % selected Distinguished Military Graduate, retention rate for 2019, and results of the Ranger Challenge competition.

Joshua Teteak, UNG '94, Former Cadet Brigade Commander and Army Medical Service Corps officer became a member of the UNG Board of Trustees.

Two former cadets were inducted into the Georgia Military Veterans Hall of Fame on

2 November 2019: MG (Ret) Jack Wheeler, UNG '61 (service) and MG James Guest, UNG '60 (valor).

Again? Our Ranger Challenge team continues to clobber all other senior military college teams at the Spartan Ranger Challenge competition at Ft. Knox. Our teams finished 1st and 2d out of 19 teams on 24-26 Oct. Next is Sandhurst Competition at West Point in spring 2020. A new obstacle course is under construction at UNG to support the Corps and the team.

Help us recruit! If you know any high school sophomore, junior, or senior (or the parent of) who is considering a military program in college, please tell them to come to National leadership Challenge Weekend on 3-5 April 2020 to learn about the Corps of Cadets at UNG!
