Congratulations to Charles “Rob” Parker, UNG '93, for promotion to brigadier general in July 2020! BG Parker is Deputy Director for Command, Control, Communications, and Computers/Cyber Systems on the Joint Staff in the Pentagon.

General Courtney Hodges (2d row, far left). Attended North Georgia Agricultural College in 1903 before transferring to West Point. Hodges was only the second Soldier in the history of the U.S. Army to make his way from private to 4-star general. Served as a battalion commander in WWI earning the Distinguished Service Cross for heroism leading an attack across the Marne River. In WWII, commanded 1st Army, then 12th Army Group.

Boar's Head Brigade Statistics--Fall 2020 Semester: 29 graduated and 27 commissioned from the Corps/UNG in December 2020 (500+ commissions in the past 5 years)
Spring 2021 Semester: 49 new U.S. cadets reported to FROG week. 2 spring semester exchange cadets from the Korean Military Academy and 2 from the Romanian Land Forces Academy are in the Corps this semester; 2 cadets from the Republic of China Military Academy (Taiwan) are enrolled for all 4 years--will return to Taiwan to commission; 681 cadets were enrolled at beginning of spring semester; 4 UNG cadets are in semester cadet exchange programs in Taiwan.
Outlook: 98-105 commissions projected in academic year 2020-2021 (Army mission = 100); 160 projected to attend advanced camp in summer 2021.

New spring semester cadets negotiated the recently-completed UNG-built confidence course near Cane Creek for Ranger Challenge Team practice.

Help us recruit! If you know any high school sophomore, junior, or senior (or the parent of) who is considering a military program in college, please tell them to contact Cadet Admissions to learn about the Corps of Cadets at UNG!
