Update 1 October 2018

Corps of Cadets updates and the Institute for Leadership and Strategic Studies (ILSS) annual report can be found here: <http://ung.edu/institute-leadership-strategic-studies/updates-reports.php>

General Mark Milley, Army Chief of Staff, visited UNG and spoke to the Corps of Cadets on 28 August in the new convocation center, and afterwards lunched with 12 cadets. LTC Kitfre Oboho, UNG '2002 is one of Milley's aides de camp and accompanied the general on his visit.

Several years ago, LTC Oboho and his wife, generously established a scholarship program for cadets.

Corps of Cadets demographics. 764 cadets began the fall 2018 semester in August. 18.3% of the Corps were women and 23.7% were minorities. 19.8% of cadets are from out of state. 24.5% are majoring in STEM. 28.7% of cadets are also Soldiers in the Army National Guard, of which 148 are recipients of the North Georgia Military Scholarship (GMS). 269 cadets have been awarded or are recipients of the Army ROTC scholarship.

Scholarship info: ung.edu/cadet/scholarships. 2 cadets are Hungarian National University of Public Service exchange cadets and 2 are Republic of China Military Academy exchange cadets (from Taiwan). Top majors, criminal justice (140), business (103), computer science/information systems/cyber (70), strategic and security studies (57), international affairs (48).

Cadet alumnus Lieutenant General (Ret) Randy Mixon was selected for induction into the Georgia Military Veteran's Hall of Fame. The ceremony will be on 3 November in Columbus, Georgia.

232 new cadets began cadet basic training (FROG Week) in August. We predict 65 new cadets to begin spring 2019 FROG Week for a total of about 297 new cadets starting cadet basic training in 2018-2019.

Cadets Gossett (center) and George (right) attended the CyCon X: Maximizing Effects at a cybersecurity conference at the NATO Cooperative Cyber Defense Center of Excellence in Tallin, Estonia in May. Here, they participated in an exercise that involved website exploitation during an ethical hacking seminar at CyCon X. UNG cadets continued their tradition of outstanding performance at summer advanced camp at Ft. Knox. 103 of 105 cadets graduated, 26% of whom earned the highest rating which compares to last year's 27% who earned the highest rating.

Help us recruit! If you know any high school sophomore, junior, or senior (or the parent of) who is considering a military program in college, please tell them to come to National Leadership Challenge Weekend on 26-28 October 2018 to learn about the Corps of Cadets at UNG! Georgia Gold, American Treasure development initiative is a fundraiser for the sole benefit of the Corps of Cadets. With a goal of $93,145,000, the vision is to "Secure and strengthen the Corps of Cadets at the University of North Georgia". All contributions benefitting Cadets will count toward our goal. Contact Phil Collins at phil.collins@ung.edu. We encourage alumni, friends and family of the Corps to participate in this vital fundraising effort. <https://unggive.org/corps-of-cadets/>
