Cadet Military Leadership Program Update
1 April 2022

Merrill's Marauders at UNG! On 3-4 March, UNG hosted a WWII Foundation premier of a documentary about Merrill's Marauders. Three of the surviving Marauders were on hand during the event, then had breakfast with our cadets.

Lieutenant Jared Pate, UNG '20, was the Distinguished Honor Graduate of Ranger Class 02-22! Pate is a platoon leader in 1st Battalion, 121st Infantry Regiment, 48th Brigade Combat Team, Georgia Army National Guard, was a recipient of the North Georgia Military Service Scholarship, and achieved the rank of cadet lieutenant colonel in the Boar's Head Brigade.

And Lieutenant Derek Whitmore, UNG '21, 2d from left, former Corps of Cadets pre-camp commander, was company honor graduate of the infantry basic officers' leaders course and earned the officer leadership award upon graduating from Ranger School.

Cadets majoring in international Affairs and Security and Strategic Studies had a lunch and learn session with Estonia's ambassador to the United States – Ambassador Kristjan Prikk, on 4 March 2022.

Programs Directorate oversees.

Help us recruit! If you know any high school sophomore, junior, or senior (or the parent of) who is considering a military program in college, please tell them to contact Cadet Admissions to learn about the Corps of Cadets at UNG!

At some point in our paths, we benefitted from the vision and generosity of others, and now it is our turn to invest in the next generation of Leaders. Please consider making support to the Corps one of your philanthropic priorities. Contact James Corbin '02 at james.corbin@ung.edu or visit the Corps of Cadets Give site to learn how you can make a difference!

Dahlonega, circa 1891. Formation of officers and student cadets of the North Georgia Agricultural College. On December 15, 1876 the United States War Department sent 150 Springfield 45/70 "trapdoor" rifles, waist belts, cartridge boxes, and bayonets to the college to inaugurate the military department of the college. The student cadets shown in this photograph are all using this style of equipment.
