Lumpria County's Minerals

Washington, May 30.—Director Webster issued his annual report, showing that the entire output of valuable minerals in 1906 was somewhat greater than in 1905. The report shows a great increase in the production of coal and iron ore. The output of coal was 1,500,000 tons, as compared with 1,000,000 tons in 1905. The output of iron ore was 500,000 tons, as compared with 300,000 tons in 1905.

The report also shows a decrease in the production of other minerals, such as gold, silver, and copper. The output of gold was 10,000 ounces, as compared with 15,000 ounces in 1905. The output of silver was 500,000 ounces, as compared with 600,000 ounces in 1905. The output of copper was 1,000,000 tons, as compared with 1,200,000 tons in 1905.

The report states that the value of the minerals produced in 1906 was $5,000,000, as compared with $4,000,000 in 1905. The report also states that the mining industry is at present in a prosperous condition, and that the future prospects are promising.

FOLEY’S KIDNEY CURE

will positively cure every case of kidney and bladder trouble if taken in time, and in the worst cases of Bright’s Disease and Diabetes it is always given comfort and relief.

Remember when the kidneys are affected the work of digestion never cease as long as life is preserved; hence the necessity of taking something to protect the kidneys. Use FOLEY’S KIDNEY CURE at once and avoid a fatal calamity.

FOLEY’S KIDNEY CURE is made from a prescription of a specialist in kidney diseases and was used for years in private practice before it was put on the market.

SOLD AND RECOMMENDED BY Dr. C. H. Jones.

BENEFICIAL RESULTS

A competent physician has been offered $100 for the fool who can cure Bright’s Disease by any means, but the world of medicine is justified in telling the public that FOLEY’S KIDNEY CURE is the cure. The following is a case of Bright’s Disease, as reported by Dr. C. H. Jones:

Saw FOLEY’S KIDNEY CURE advertised and took one bottle which cured me and I have not been affected since.

W. L. Yancy, of Paducah, Ky.

To Cure a Horrible Fever.

This is the only remedy I have ever used and it has cured me every time.

Git my old horse, Mary and mum of grey.

Git my old saddle, Mary and mum of grey.

Git my old hat, Mary and mum of grey.

I'm going out parades with the boys of '92.

Never mind them blackened Mary, never mind that ragged fellow.

I'm going out parades with the boys of '92.

Just 'long of these times Mary, just 'long of these times.

For I am going out parades with the boys of '92.

Three old chaps don't flay me Mary, I'm going out parades with the boys of '92.

Don't you remember how nearly I came to my very own time they did.

Never mind that sheet the s'ei'my, it's a good thing for me.

For I am going out parades with the boys of '92.

Pull my sword slice tighter, Mary, it's that strap through my whip.

I've grown old and threadbare, Mary, like my uniform and thin.

I ain't goin' forth to battle cheer.

But I reckon I'll pass master, as I've grown old and threadbare.

I've grown old and threadbare.

I' ll need 'em all today.

For I am goin' out parades with the boys of '92.

I' ll need 'em all today.

No class of people is more anxious to relieve the suffering of the sick and wounded than the women and girls of their own sex. And many of them are the better for it, organized a mutual aid society for the collection of funds to pay for the New York Commercial. This story by Miss Temple Graves, who has always been a good writer, is one of the best pieces of her kind that has been written in the past few years.

The women and girls were the first to respond to the call for help. They collected money by selling ice cream, and even when it was too cold, they went out in a great happiness to seek the money that would help to save the lives of the men who were fighting for their country.

The survivors of these, consisting of forty women and girls, were left in the village. The women and girls were the first to respond to the call for help. They collected money by selling ice cream, and even when it was too cold, they went out in a great happiness to seek the money that would help to save the lives of the men who were fighting for their country.
