Mr George A. Gordon Esq

Der Sir I received your letter of Sept 18 and was pleased to hear from you & that you & family was well but sorry to hear your wife had never received the letter you sent by me I forgot to give it to Gouder & never thought of the letter until I got home I then sent it to Mr Quillains so I thought he would send it the first chance when I got your letter I went to see Mr Quillains & he says he sent it by some one with some other letters he thinks so I fear it is lost by my neglect for not giving it to Gouder but it is too late to help that now I could make several excuses for my neglect but if Quillain finds it I will send it to her you said you would of sent me some peaches if you had the chance I am sure I would send you some apples now if I had the chance for I have some fine ones but peaches was scarce here I would like to see you sure & J H Ad if you ever pass ner me I trust you would call & see me witho out my having to bush wack you let me her from you agane so I will close for the presant yours &c
