NO. 20

FROM THE PRESIDENT

I have called a meeting of the full College personnel--faculty and professional and support staff--to be held on Monday, January 30, at 3:15 p.m. in the Music Building auditorium. We will meet as a total group and possibly break up into two separate meetings following the first meeting. This meeting will take the place of the previously scheduled staff meeting on February 2 and faculty meeting on February 16. I would encourage everyone to be in attendance. Refreshments will be served.

Division/Cost Center heads should make arrangements to transfer their calls or have the telephones handled by student aides. Please coordinate with Erdine if you have difficulty in covering your phones.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The quarterly Developmental Studies Faculty meeting will be held on Wednesday, February 1, 1989, at 3:00 p.m. in the Guidance Center. If you are teaching a Developmental Studies course or are interested in the program, please plan to attend. Several important issues will be discussed. Refreshments will be served.

You are cordially invited to attend the annual meeting of the Georgia Honors Council on February 17, 1989, at Macon College. The theme of this year's meeting is "Taking a Chance in Honors," and the various programs--all of which will include student participants--will consider some of the benefits that can be derived from honors programs and classes. Please let Tom Tuggle know as soon as possible if you can attend or if you have questions. His office is located at 178C, Academic Building, phone extension 6299.

The English Club is planning to attend the University of Georgia's production of Romeo and Juliet on Wednesday, February 18. The price is $3 per person if 10 people attend. See Tom Sauret in Room 178A to sign up. Please do so by February 8, and be prepared to leave your admission fee with him.

Faculty, staff, and students are invited to LACOSA-sponsored "Soup Day" on Thursday, January 26, from 11 a.m.-12:30 p.m. and from 7:30-8:30 p.m. The event will be held in the Student Center.

To begin Black History Month at the College: The Cultural Awareness Committee and the Black Student Association invite all students, faculty, and staff to a Telecommunications program, a live broadcast originating in Washington, D.C., on Wednesday, February 1, from 1-3 p.m. in the Lanier Room. The theme is "Beyond the Dream: A Celebration of Black History."

A video teleconference, Seminar on Acquaintance/Date Rape Prevention, has been scheduled for Thursday, February 2, from 2-5 p.m. in the Lanier Room. Presenters include Dr. Barry Burkhart, Professor of Psychology at Auburn University, and Dr. Claire Walsh, Director of Sexual Assault Recovery Service at the University of Florida. There is a charge for this teleconference, but faculty, staff, and students of Gainesville College will be admitted free.

Watercolors and sculpture by Edward Bramlette will be on exhibit in the Student Center lobby in the Continuing Education area from January 30-February 17.

A meeting for the purpose of developing an alumni questionnaire will be held on Tuesday, January 31, at 2 p.m. in the Administration Building Conference Room. Anyone who would like to provide input into or be involved in this matter is invited to attend. For more information, please contact Norma Seerley at Ext. 6301 or Doyle Webb at Ext 6326.

PUTTING OUR BEST OARS FORWARD

Norma Searley attended the University System's Task Force on Assessment of General Education Outcomes at Georgia College, Milledgeville, on January 9. She also attended a meeting of the Subcommittee of the System's Assessment Consortium.

Bob Howington, Bronda Perry, and Peggy Stevens attended a University System Budget Workshop at Southern Tech on January 12.

Brad Strickland was interviewed for the "About Books" program on Jacksonville's WQBR radio station on January 13. One of his short stories has been chosen for inclusion in The Year's Best Horror Stories, Volume XVII.

Foster Watkins attended the District-wide Congressional Action Conference sponsored by the Gainesville-Hall County Chamber of Commerce at Holiday Hall on January 16. Congressman Ed Jenkins was the principal speaker. Dr. Watkins attended the Ninth District Superintendent's meeting at Cafe Julius on January 18; the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors meeting in Commerce on January 20; the Ninth District Principals meeting at the Beef Corral on January 23.

FROM THE ADVANCEMENT OFFICE

Many thanks to all of you who helped as we planned and hosted the Annual Meeting and Luncheon of the Foundation. Many of you attended for which we are grateful. The Annual Meeting and the fundraising activities of the Foundation continue to grow. We give each of you credit for that growth and for the strong support we receive from our community. THE FACULTY AND STAFF OF THE COLLEGE DO SUCH AN OUTSTANDING JOB OF EDUCATING OUR STUDENTS AND OF PROVIDING QUALITY SERVICE TO THE COMMUNITY THAT RAISING FUNDS IS EASY. We have heard many of our Trustees and volunteers say that donations for Gainesville College are the easiest to ask for and the easiest to get. Thank you!
