The Year in Pictures 1973
He Who Commands the Sea Commands Everything
To Know the Shape of the Past

College is a rich cross-section of the people who make up society. With this in mind a college should capitalize on its opportunity to extend special educational offerings to all of its students.

Certainly an educational institution's key purpose is to prepare students for jobs and careers in the adult community. It is also an integral responsibility to foster outlets for the personal growth of its students through a variety of campus and community activities.

The community looks to the college for its future leaders just as in ages past leaders such as Ludwig Von Beethoven, Jim Thorpe, Socrates, Albert Einstein, and Noah Webster were produced in their particular disciplines. By encouraging student exposure to many varied types of curriculum and even trivia the school fulfills its duty to prove these young leaders.

The Student Center at Gainesville Junior College enlarged to three times its original size and completely refurnished. The total space now accommodates not only the campus food service and book store but houses such student interests areas as the recreational or game rooms, student lounge, conference rooms and Student Government offices. The Center designed from student recommendations, features a massive stone fireplace which forms the focal point of the multi-purpose dining room.
Library...

The Gainesville Junior College Library was another welcomed addition to the campus in 1972. The new two story facility was named The Hosch Library and follows the standard designs required to create an outstanding educational environment with attractive surroundings and top quality resource materials relating to every discipline on a junior college campus.
Our college has been fortunate to have an active Foundation whose purpose it has been to assist in programs that normally are not funded from public appropriations. Basically, their scholarship aid has been in the areas of drama, music, and athletics. However, there are special scholarships such as poultry science and a very special type of aid that has been made available for Christian young people whose educational advancement can be improved through financial assistance.

One singular campus improvement is the completion of the track field. Work currently is underway on this project and has been made possible through a special donation to the Foundation, used to match other monies available for track expenditures.

At the annual meeting on campus last Thursday, Mr. Jim Smithson was re-elected Chairman of the Trustees and seven new members were chosen: Messrs. Pierce Hancock, Milton Martin, Furman Stancil, Jimmy Allan, Sam Jones, N. A. Jacobs, Ralph Cleveland. These join fourteen Trustees whose terms did not expire: John Braselton, Tom Bryan, John Cromartie, James Dunlap, Eldo Grogan, R. H. McEver, Jack McKibbon, Jr., Mrs. J. H. Martin, James Mathis, Hoyt Robinson, Jim Smithson, Loyd Strickland, Ed Wayne, Marion Stribling.

The 1972 G.J.C. Soccer Team

A young and inexperienced soccer team, the Laker Legs were 1-6 this season. They did show a great deal of pride and character as they were never really out of any match, losing the majority of their games by only one goal.

Albert Einstein

The ideals which have lighted my way, and time after time have given me new courage to face life cheerfully, have been kindness, beauty, and truth . . . The trite subjects of human efforts — possessions, outward success, luxury — have always seemed to me contemptible.
