Remember The Laughter And The Tears

A year of people . . . busy people, so many types, but all as individual as the event of time . . . each expressing a genuine feeling of a special moment. People . . . a mixture of ideas, values, and cultures who all came together to form GJC. It's not just a building, but an atmosphere filled with joy and sorrow. A year together . . . a time to laugh . . . a time to share . . . your knowledge, your smile, your love . . .

"Let me entertain you" was sang by Tricia Pearce as she played the title role in the Gainesville College Theatre production of "Gypsy". The play was held November 10, 11, 12, 13, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 1976. The tickets were sold out for each performance. The director for the play was Ed Cabell and the designer was Richard Rose. The long hours and hard work paid off when the musical fable was a superb success.

Miss Fathom
1976-1977
Is...
A night to remember was November 23, 1976 when the 1977 Fathom Staff sponsored the 1976 Miss Fathom Pageant. Nineteen girls from each campus organization competed for the title of Miss Fathom. These girls were Jeri McWard, Nancy Adams, Bobann Allen, Laura Lloyd, Beth Brown, Kim Short, Joanie Morgan, Robyn Elsner, Jenny Seabolt, Robin Garland, Christy Walker, Tina Gowder, Vicki London, Lisa Hogsed, Sherry Tolbert, Linda Robinson, Joyce Ann Godfrey, Darla Llewellyn, and Kathy Boone.

This year's Miss Fathom Pageant was filled with excitement and anticipation. Master of Ceremonies was Mr. Ross Apperson and Pageant Coordinator was Miss Karen Lowry. The judges were Mrs. Alma Bowen, The Times, Mr. Joe Fokie, 11-Alive Television, and Mrs. Sue Geist, Casual Corner, Perimeter Mall. The day of the pageant the contestants chose Sherry Tolbert, Right, as Miss Congeniality 1976.

Finally, the judges made their decision. The ten semi-finalists were Bobann Allen, Kathy Boone, Beth Brown, Robin Garland, Tina Gowder, Lisa Hogsed, Joanie Morgan, Jenny Seabolt, Sherry Tolbert, Christy Walker.
The five semi-finalist, above, were Jenny Seabolt, Beth Brown, Robin Garland, Christy Walker, and, Joanie Morgan. Christy Walker was chosen as first runner-up and Robin Garland was chosen to reign as the new Miss Fathom.

The Gainesville Jr. College Fashion Merchandising Class presented a beauty workshop on November 20, 1976. People such as Peter Degrace from Peter's Place in Atlanta and Sandra Pierce from Mary Kay Cosmetics were there to give special suggestions in grooming and make-up application. After the make-up demonstration, a fashion show entitled "Looks Unlimited" was presented. Miss Karen Lowry did another great job as director of the workshop.
Dance At GJC
A dance is the place to be for action. Each GJC dance had a special kind of excitement. Lacosa sponsored dances with bands such as Revolver, Rabbit Branch, Pure 'N' Simple, Riverstreet and Eli. At the Halloween dance, prizes were given for the best costumes. GJC danced to the music.

Big Drop Award

What's a Big Drop Award? Kathy Boone accepts the award after GJC students and faculty rolled up their sleeves and gave 196 pints of blood to the American Red Cross. The Blood Drive Big Drop Award was given for outstanding participation in the blood drive on October 20, 1976.
As the G.J.C. Lakers hustled down the court to gain a decisive lead before halftime, the excitement of homecoming began to build. In the foreground, two strong, competitive teams striving for a victory... a serious scene. In the background, a somewhat more reversed feeling was afloat. That "What do we do?", "I'm so nervous!", "How much longer before?" feeling of butterlies and anticipation had arrived. Seven girls and their escorts exchanging flowers, fears, and funny thoughts, one nervous commentator trying to pull loose ends together, and one last year's queen remembering her crowning and how she felt a year ago. Amidst all the fears of inaccuracy, Father Time arrived punctually. The buzzer sounded. The teams left the court. The stands became quiet as each girl was escorted out to the center court. The question raced through the crowd. "Who will be the new queen?" Then the question was answered. The 1976-1977 Homecoming Queen was Miss Patty DuVall, a sparkling, friendly, golden-haired sophomore with a equally fair-haired escort, Mr. Allan Davis. The other contestants were Tiny Gowder escorted by Danny Berry, Jenny Seabolt escorted by Mike Jackson, Rhonda Williams escorted by Mike Poole, Laura Lloyd escorted by Brent George, Lucy Seabolt escorted by Benji Harrell, and Sherry Tolbert escorted by Jimmy Latham. The Homecoming Dance proved to be a great success. The band was Riverstreet, the theme was "Be young, be foolish, but be happy." That's what everyone seemed to be... young, foolish, and happy.

Cheerleaders

The Laker Cheerleaders consist of six girls who try out during the fall in front of the student body and faculty. The Cheerleaders promote spirit throughout the school and at the basketball games. The 1977 cheerleaders are Rhonda Williams, Tina Gowder, Lucy Seabolt, Demaris Porter, Jenny Seabolt, and Patti Duvall.
Intramurals

The teams practiced hard and learned what it means to work as a "Team". The games were exciting because of the sparkle of victory in each player's eye. It was not like playing someone you would never see again because each team consisted of friends and classmates. Basketball, football, softball, air hockey, chess, and many other sports were included in competition.
Track

The track team is always ahead of the others mainly because Coach Kirkland pushes them on to Victory. The team consist of Rick Atha, Curt Love, Rick Saxton, Danny Little, Mike Poole, Stan Smith, Kenneth Hardigree, Roger Moore, David Head, (Front) Jim Kirkland—Coach, and Eddie Suggs.

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to the many people who have contributed many hours of hard work to help in the production of this yearbook. Without their help the production of the 1977 Fathom would not have been possible.

Mrs. Clara Murray  Mr. Robert Magg
Dr. Jack Jones  Mr. Buck Mills
Mr. Dan Troy  Mr. Karl Biedinger
Mr. Lanier Griffith

I would also like to thank those who made special photography contributions. An extra "thank you" goes to the students for their cooperation and participation in the production of the 1977 Fathom.
