Campus and Alumni: Leading the Way
by Martha T. Nesbitt, President
Gainesville College

Springtime is imminent and I am eager to see the campus blooming and to participate in the many activities being planned. I look forward to seeing many of you at the dedication of the Hugh Mills Physical Education Complex, inaugural activities and the Alumni Family Picnic.

The campus has been humming all year with various student and faculty activities in addition to instruction and busy schedules in the various service areas which provide academic support and student development services. The business and personnel areas as well as the maintenance, security and grounds staff have also kept a fast pace in assuring smooth operations in a safe, clean and attractive environment.

Our addition to the Student Center now houses the College Bookstore and a Game Room for students. This addition has provided space for Financial Aid Services to expand, an area which gets busier each year in processing scholarships and financial aid for students. Thanks to alumni and Foundation support, we are able to provide many scholarships for students in addition to HOPE Scholarships, private scholarships, and federal types of aid including both grants and loans. A busy Financial Aid Office is a key to a healthy campus that provides opportunities for higher education to students without regard to their economic status.

I continue to meet more of you in the community and when I travel around Northeast Georgia. It is so gratifying to have such a large contingent of alumni who have stayed in this area and who are such strong supporters of the College. Without exception, the alumni I’ve meet express a deep sense of loyalty to the College which had such a positive and significant impact on their lives. We value that loyalty and are committed to continuing the strong academic program, academic support and student development services and providing the intellectual, social, and cultural activities important to a collegiate experience.

A special thanks go to those of you who have served or are currently serving on the Alumni Council. Also, thank all of you who have participated or are current members on the College’s Foundation Board and who provide the leadership so important for the success of the Foundation. I was pleased that a majority of new members on the Board this year are GC alumni. This commitment symbolizes the vitality of our alumni in assisting the College to continue leading the way as an excellent educational, and cultural center in Northeast Georgia.

We are busy getting ready for Spring in the GC Alumni Office. Our most exciting event coming up that is open to all alumni is our Alumni Family Picnic.

This is an afternoon of free food and activities for adults and children. The date to mark on your calendar is Saturday, May 16, 1998. Details about the event are outlined on page 7.

The recipient of the Distinguished Service Award was Doug Dillard of Cornelia. He was instrumental in the establishment of the GC Alumni Association by serving on a steering committee that designed and created the Association over 12 years ago. He has also served as a past president of the Alumni Association and is a past member of the Alumni Council. His community involvement includes: Deacon at First Baptist Church of Habersham, Kiwanis Club member since 1977, active in the Habersham County Chamber of Commerce, 32nd Degree Mason and Shriner, President of his Kiwanis Club in 1986, Habersham County Leadership Award in 1994, and is a leader in the Cub Scout and Boy Scout program. He successfully started and still manages a once-owned insurance agency, Advantage Insurers which is now a part of the Habersham Bank. He and his wife Shirley have three children, Chip, Jay and Jacque.

I want to personally encourage your participation in this fun day at Gainesville College. It is an opportunity for you to relax and visit with alumni friends as well as see the campus.

There continues to be growth and changes on our beautiful campus. The Student Center addition has been completed. The Bookstore has moved to this area for expansion and an activity room for students has also been created from this additional space. With the Bookstore move, the Financial Aid Office will soon begin expansion into the old Bookstore area. This will help students by making the Financial Aid Office more visible and accessible.

As you can tell, there is a lot going on at GC. So please mark your schedule to attend the Alumni Family Picnic. There will be lots to do and see on campus!

Entertainment was provided by the GC Chorale Men, under the direction of Lynn Lathem, GC Assistant Professor of Music.

The Foundation named former Trustee Charles Smithgall and his wife, Lessie, Honorary Life Trustees as a team based on their exceptional dedication and service to the Foundation, the College and the Community. Mr. Smithgall served as a GC Foundation Trustee, was a member of the University System of Georgia Board of Regents, and he and Mrs. Smithgall have attended, hosted, and supported many College special events. They have always demonstrated their belief in Gainesville College and its positive influence on the community.

New officers of the Foundation for 1998 were elected at the meeting: Stacey Reece, Chairman; Co-Owner of Dynamic People Staffing Services
GC Welcomes New Director of Advancement Marsha Hopkins

Marsha Hopkins, GC alumna, began her position at Gainesville College in December, 1997. She brings to the College a wealth of community and work experience. Most recently, she was employed for 13 years with Georgia Mountains Regional Development Center as their Program Manager for Job Training. Other work experience includes positions at the Gainesville-Hall County Girls Club, Lanier Park Hospital and Camp Echoee.

In addition to her work experience, her community involvement has included: Gainesville-Hall County Girls Club Board of Directors, Hall County United Way Board of Directors, Elachee Nature Science Center Board of Directors, The Salvation Army Advisory Board, Hall County Historical Society, GC Foundation Board of Trustees, Northeast Georgia Girl Scout Council, Gainesville-Hall County Alliance for Literacy, Arts Council Board of Directors, City of Gainesville Planning Commission, and Georgia Gardener Club, just to name a few.

In Marsha's position at GC she is responsible for the Gainesville College Foundation and all of the activities of the Advancement Office that includes the offices of Public Relations and Marketing and Alumni Affairs. In her position she works directly with the Foundation Board of Trustees and the President of the College to promote the College and raise money for scholarships. The Foundation Fund Drive Goal for 1998 is approaching half a million dollars. Currently Gainesville College raises more money each year than any other two-year college in the University System, and also raises more money than half of the four-year colleges and universities in the System.

During her time at GC Marsha has already conducted a very successful Foundation Annual Meeting which is profiled on page 1. In addition, she has met with many of the Foundation Board of Trustees and has conducted orientation for the newly-elected Board members. She has also hit the ground running through her attendance at many community and chamber events in Gainesville and in surrounding counties.

Marsha holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Recreation Education and a Master's Degree in Social Work, both from the University of Georgia. She is married to GC alumnus Benjie Hopkins of Gainesville. They have four sons: Boone, Mayes, Ethan and Isaac. She and her family attend the First United Methodist Church.

Gainesville College is very fortunate to have Marsha Hopkins on staff. The GC Foundation is assured of continued growth under her leadership.

The 1997 Annual Report
Honor Roll
To say that 1997 was a year of both changes and challenges for Gainesville College is an understatement. We bade a fond farewell to Foster Watkins and Pat McArthy and enthusiastically welcomed Dr. Martha Nesbitt as our third president. Our success was due in large part to the efforts of a hardworking Executive Committee and Fund Drive Chairman, Stacey Reece. Thanks to the strong support of a dedicated staff, other Trustees, Alumni and hundreds of committed volunteers and the many friends of the College, we surpassed our Annual Fund Drive Goal of $450,000. In addition, we were able to take advantage of $58,000 in State Lottery funds to assist the College in meeting technology development needs as well as providing minor necessary renovations.

The new year is shaping up to be as eventful as 1997. The projected budget of approximately $610,000 will be funded from income generated by the recently completed Annual Fund Drive and the selected use of income from the Foundation Endowment which now exceeds $4.5 million. As we know, the main element that makes Gainesville College unique among the two-year schools in the University System is the generous support from the Foundation and from this community.

In March, we will be dedicating our newly refurbished Physical Education Complex to Dr. Hugh Mills, Jr., the College’s first president. In April, we will have the inauguration for Dr. Nesbitt. Both of these events will focus the spotlight on our fine institution and we welcome your participation.

The members of the Executive Committee are pleased to announce that the special $10,000 allocation for the library and $30,000 for professional development funding are being continued. Also, we are increasing support for a number of out-of-class student activities which contribute greatly to the broad dimensions of our College.

The most important part of this report is summarized on pages 6 and 7. During the 1996-97 academic year, 454 students received financial assistance from the Foundation during the academic year and 57 faculty and staff members of the College benefitted from professional development funding. The impact of the Foundation’s support has lasting significance, both at an organizational level and for individual students.

This year brings strong, capable leadership to the Foundation with the addition of Marsha Hopkins as Director of Advancement. We anticipate that this will be one of our very best years. We have a tremendous heritage of success to build upon. However, we have a great challenge ahead as we seek to further the mission of Gainesville College, which is to offer access and opportunity for a quality education to a full range of students.

It has been an honor and a privilege to serve as your Foundation Chairman for 1997. I appreciate the opportunity to work with such an outstanding institution. Gainesville College has meant a great deal to my family for many years and continues to be a vital part of their community. Thank you for your support.

P. Lee Chapman
Foundation Chairman
In my first year as President of Gainesville College, I have been gratified to see the quality and quantity of support which the community provides for the campus. It is wonderful to be part of a community where there are so many loyal alumni who serve the College in various capacities. Contributions to the College Foundation are a visible sign of how much the citizens in the area value our institution. The resources of the Foundation are a primary factor in making possible that extra edge of excellence which makes Gainesville an outstanding college. As a result of the Foundation, the College has one of the most generous scholarship programs in the University System. Foundation resources also provide our faculty and staff with extra opportunities for their professional growth and development which in turn allows them to better serve our students. In addition, extra support for our library and student/faculty activities enriches our college life.

A spirit of community pervades the campus. A feeling of caring for each other and for students is clearly evident and results in a healthy academic environment. This feeling is enhanced by the friendship and appreciation of the community. As the fountainhead of that community support, the Foundation takes great ownership and pride in the College. That is an invaluable gift.

The year 1997 has been a challenge for the Foundation, and especially for the Executive Committee, with the departure of President Foster Watkins and Advancement Director Patricia McArthy. Losing these two strong leaders during the search and transition period for a new president created a critical void which the Executive Committee under the leadership of Chairman Lee Chapman effectively filled. Thanks to Lee, this committee and the larger membership of the Board, the Foundation is healthy and poised for a new year. I am grateful for this support and commitment to the College.

The support of the community shows great trust that we at the institution will provide a first-class education to our students and also serve our community with economic development activities, personal enrichment opportunities, and cultural events. The College is dedicated to fulfilling that trust and being an educational center for Northeast Georgia. While we remain a two-year college in mission, we are attracting four-year and even graduate programs from University System institutions to our campus to serve the citizens of the area. We also intend to continue our collaborative programs with the state’s technical institutes for those students seeking two-year career programs. Another area of service which we want to expand is the outreach to high school students through the Post-Secondary Options. This program allows qualified high school juniors and seniors to take college courses which count both towards their high school diploma and a college degree. We want to invite these students onto our campus and to send faculty to teach the classes in the high schools.

Our enrollment in Fall, 1997 was almost 2900 credit students, representing over 8% growth from the previous fall. While such a large increase in enrollment is not anticipated each year, it is clear that the College will grow as we serve the growing northeast region of Georgia. We want to serve these students with the quality of education which is a tradition on our campus. This involves continuing to attract top-notch faculty and staff and providing the equipment and instructional technology which marks the best in higher education. We plan to continue assuring that our students who transfer perform strong academically and those who enter the workforce possess the necessary knowledge and skills. The Foundation can help us in these efforts.

The College is putting together its strategic plan for the next five years, titled “Spanning the Millennium: 1998-2003.” The Foundation is an integral part of this plan, and two members of the Board serve on the Strategic Planning Committee. You can help us foresee the needs of the community and the direction we need to go. Your advice, friendship, and support will enable Gainesville College to continue “Leading the Way” in effectively preparing our students to pursue lifelong education, to enjoy fulfilling careers, and to provide leadership in promoting the civic, social and economic well-being of Northeast Georgia.

Thank each of you for your warm welcome to the College and the community. I look forward to working with you as we pursue our common passion: the excellence of Gainesville College.

Martha T. Nesbitt
President,
Gainesville College
The Gainesville College Foundation generates and administers private financial support for the College. Overseeing the funds raised by the Foundation is a continuing responsibility of a 36-member Board of Trustees which operates through an Executive Committee.

Funds provided through the Foundation continue to increase because of the generous support of our donors. This enables the College to be a vital part of its service area, responding to new and expanding educational needs. Foundation resources are utilized primarily for student scholarships, faculty and staff development, and the many area outreach activities of the College.

Recently, increased emphasis has been placed upon endowment activities. The Foundation continues to respond to the College's challenge to stay current with equipment needs in administrative/academic computing technologies and in mathematics and laboratory sciences.

The Annual Fund Drive consists of several campaign areas including a major donor thrust; “A Day for GC” in Hall County; Trustee-led solicitations in outlying counties; a faculty/staff campaign; and alumni phonathons and direct mail solicitations.

As reflected in the figures above, there is a continuing effort to develop the Endowment of the Foundation which, as of December 31, 1997, was over $4.5 million, and to raise funds to match the Lottery Challenge Opportunity.

*The Foundation was fortunate this year to have had several large gifts to new and existing endowments including: Bryson, Cabell, Hennen, Purdy, Robinson and Watkins.
Leadership for the very successful 1997 Fund Drive was provided by Foundation Vice Chairman Stacey Reece (right), who served as Fund Drive Chairman and Rich White (center), Honorary Fund Drive Chairman. They are shown here with Foundation Chairman Lee Chapman (left).

GAINESVILLE COLLEGE ENROLLMENT IN NORTHEAST GEORGIA SERVICE AREA BY COUNTY

FALL, 1997

Fall, 1997 Enrollment 2,875
The Investment Committee is charged with overseeing the investment management of the Gainesville College Foundation Endowment Funds, including the General Endowment and Title III monies. Since August 17, 1993, the Committee has directed its Investment Manager to stay within a Global Balanced Income model. In August of 1997, the Investment Committee determined that the most advantageous asset allocation of the Foundation, given the current market, would be Global Balanced Growth. With this change in strategy, the Foundation monies are now invested within an asset allocation of 0% to 5% cash, 30% to 50% bonds, and 50% to 70% stock. The Committee believes this switch will result in even more growth while keeping volatility to a minimum.

The Investment Committee spent numerous hours this year going through the process of selecting a new investment manager. The Foundation's guidelines call for our choice of investment manager to be reviewed every three to five years. For the past several years, our monies have been under the watchful management of the Trust and Investments Division of Regions Bank f/k/a/ First National Bank of Gainesville. Proposals from nine different investment managers were submitted to us for consideration. After reviewing and discussing each, the Committee heard oral presentations from four of the nine managers. The Investment Committee then voted to remain with Regions Bank as our investment manager, a decision that all members were extremely pleased with.

The Investment Committee is proud to report that our investments enjoyed 8.99% growth during 1997, net of fees. As of December 31, 1997, the market value of our Title III Endowment was $3,721,771 and our General Endowment was $776,682 for a total account balance of $4,498,454. This is a 65% increase since December 31, 1991. Congratulations on our growth and excellent management!

<td>Remembered as one of the first women in the area to hold an executive position in the banking industry, Ms. Bryson (1903-1997) was employed by Gainesville National Bank (now Wachovia) for 48 years. One of only a handful of employees when she began working at GNB in 1924, she held the position of Senior Vice President when she retired in 1972. Ms. Bryson took several young women “under her wing” to lead them in their banking careers. Ms. Bryson’s niece, Dr. Evelyn P. Woodward and Evelyn’s husband, Hank, acting as her caretakers before her death, donated Wachovia stock to establish this fund. Due to the fact that her family was from this area and she had taught in a two-year college in Florida, Ms. Woodward and her family decided to make Gainesville College Foundation the benefactor of this scholarship fund. Priority consideration will be given to non-traditional, needy students with academic potential.</td>
<td>An anonymous donor established this fund in honor of Ed Cabell, Professor of Speech &amp; Drama; Chair, Speech &amp; Fine Arts Department. Mr. Cabell joined the Gainesville College faculty in 1968. He was instrumental in and provided the leadership to establish the award-winning drama department at Gainesville College, the Gainesville Theatre Alliance, and the Summer Scholars Program. He is recognized throughout the State of Georgia as a leader in the Arts and has received numerous awards including being named Georgia Professor of the Year by CASE (Council for Advancement and Support of Education) in 1992. Award of scholarship will be based on financial need and recognized excellence of students majoring in speech communications and fine arts.</td>
<td>Bill and Edna Hennen have made contributions to the Gainesville College Foundation for the past 20 years. When Mr. Hennen died suddenly last May, the family directed contributions in his memory to the Foundation and ultimately decided to establish this permanent fund in honor of both Mr. and Mrs. Hennen. Significant contributions from Mrs. Hennen and members of the Cherokee Gun Club increased the fund so that within the next year the first scholarship should be awarded to a Gainesville College student majoring in mathematics or science. Both Bill and Edna Hennen held leadership positions in community organizations in Gainesville. While neither of them completed bachelor’s degrees, higher education was a realized expectation they had for their four daughters. Their past support of the scholarship program of the Gainesville College Foundation embodied their interest to assist local students. That support will continue for years to come.</td>
