

UNG ARC SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Oral Research Projects and Presentations

Research projects submitted as oral presentations should be no longer than 10-15 minutes (technology will be available for PowerPoints and Prezi's). Research presentations should include relevant background information, a method and results section (if applicable) and a discussion section. Abstracts should include information regarding how the research is significant for the field and address the conclusions drawn from your project (or expected to be drawn if your work is still in progress).

Posters

Students presenting in poster sessions should plan to have their poster in place at least 30 minutes prior to the poster session beginning. A more specific timeline of will be available once the final schedule is released. Posters should be no bigger than 36" X 48".

Creative Presentations with or without oral presentation

Musical/performance: Musical performances submissions should be accompanied by a one-page statement.

This statement should include whether or not an oral presentation will be given, the title, composer, arranger, and information about the historical significance of the work(s). If it is an arrangement, please state why the arrangement was created and why specific musical decisions were made.

Visual arts: Exhibitions of visual artworks submissions (drawing, painting, sculpture, ceramic, photography, graphic design, new media, performance, video) should be accompanied by a one-page statement.

The artist statement should include whether or not an oral presentation will be given, describe your media and process, subject matter and thematic content, as well as the artistic genres and interdisciplinary research that informs the artwork.

Musical Performances and Visual Arts submissions without an oral presentation will be scheduled to perform during the morning Art Gallery or poster session. Musical Performances with an oral presentation (5-7 minute talk) will be scheduled with the other oral presentations. Visual Arts submissions with an oral presentation (5-10 minute talk) will be scheduled with the other oral presentations.
